Nominations Now Open for County Leader of the Year

American City & County has been the voice of state and local government since 1909. The magazine serves a powerful audience of city, county and state officials who are charged with developing and implementing government policy, programs and projects. This month, American City and County magazine is soliciting nominations for County Leader of the Year (nomination form here). Nominations are open for all elected officials, department heads or employees working for any county government in the United States. There are no restrictions on who can submit a nomination.

This is a free and fantastic way to gain nationwide recognition for the performance of your local officials and programs. Nominations are due by April 20 so I encourage you to download the nomination forms today and identify those individuals you feel are deserving.
